

The Programme

The programme is limited to a maximum of four semesters. After finishing this programme, students can enrol in a Diploma degree programme, if they have reached the required language proficiency and artistic maturity. Students can obtain a Diploma degree in one of the specialist classes. The ATA (Academy for transcultural exchange) programme does not result in a degree, but the modules completed will be credited, when the students enrol afterwards in a Diploma degree programme at the HGB Leipzig (Academy of Fine Arts Leipzig).

Language courses

Courses in German as a foreign language are offered for refugee students enrolled at the Academy for Transcultural Exchange in order to gain the required language proficiency. So students can acquire or improve their language skills through German courses at different levels (B1 to C1), by this the ATA aims to address the different language levels of the students. These courses are taught in small groups, in accordance with the teaching methods at the HGB Leipzig. In these language courses students can reach the level of language skills required for an enrolment in a Diploma programme at the HGB Leipzig (according to § 28 Abs. 5 of the study regulations). In addition to the usual language lessons, the courses include theory lessons relevant to the degree programmes, as well as necessary subject-specific and scientific vocabulary. Additional intensive courses are offered in between terms. The language lessons are open to interested students also after passing the required language level, if students need additional help concerning language problems with their subjects.

Specialist classes

By joining the classes of the Diploma courses, ATA-students learn the basics of the intended degree-course.

Equipped Workshops

The students get to know the different graphic and audiovisual workshops in weekly changing courses.

Workshops

The Academy for Transcultural Exchange invites to the workshop series: "Is That a Fish in your Ear? - Politics of Language, Questions of Translation"

"We are seeing, thinking, and sensing the world in a way that already implicates us in this modern/colonial order." Rolando Vázquez

"Is that a Fish in your Ear?" is a new continuous format in context of ATA-Academy for Transcultural Exchange Leipzig in 2019/2020 which focuses on language, translation as well as cultural transfer and tests practices to decolonize knowledge. ATA invites guest artists with different cultural backgrounds to facilitate encounters and exchange. It deals with the ambivalence of translation in its various manifestations and encourages debate and participation. The format is open for everyone to participate in the situation of (self)translation.

Application

Admission to the Academy for Transcultural Exchange is possible after passing an aptitude test and submitting a positive residence permit from the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees (BAMF).

The application period for the winter semester 2020/2021 lasts from March 2nd 2020 to May 15th 2020.

The application must include the following documents, without these documents an admission is not possible:

1. a selection of a maximum of 5 artistic and design work samples related to the degree-course or to the subject
2. letter of motivation including the intended diploma programme
3. CV with essential information about previous education and artistic activities
4. a photo of yourself (attached to the application form)
5. proof of former education equivalent to the German university admission certificate
6. proof of language proficiency in German (at least an A2 certificate)
7. proof of a positive residence permit issued by the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees (BAMF), optionally a copy of the travel passport/residence permit

The Admissions Committee determines the applicant's artistic aptitude based on the provided work samples. All applicants receive written notification of the results. Applicants with a positive result will be invited to take part in the assessment week from 15-19 June 2020 at the HGB in Leipzig.

During this week, you will choose two workshops. The results of those workshops will be the basis for the decision of the examination board. As a final step you will have an individual interview with the examination board, which will last 10 to 20 minutes and preferably be held in German.

All applicants will receive a written notification of the result.
